

“The best writing is rewriting.”
(E.B. White Author of 'Charlotte's Web' and 'Stuart Little,' contributor to 'The New Yorker' and co-author of 'The Elements of Style.')

Structural Editing Panel:

- Focus on Writing for Children, Fiction and Non-Fiction.
- How to make your words say what you want them to.

Panel Discussion with:

- Jane Smith – “I understand what a writer needs from an editor ... Whether you’re a first-time writer seeking to self-publish, an experienced published author, or anything in between, I will help you create a work you can be proud of.”
www.janesmitheditor.com
- Judy Gregory – “I Love Words ... I can help you think about the logical arrangement of ideas, the best ways to get your message across, and clear ways to explain complex concepts.” www.judygregorywriter.com.au/writing-editing/editing/
- Patrice Shaw – “A Way with Words ... Writers need editors to help clearly convey their message to their intended audience.” www.psediting.com.au

Saturday 14th August:

- The Hills District Community Centre Hall
- 291 Dawson Parade, Arana Hills 4054
- 2.00pm start

Followed by:

Book Launch - ‘Carly Mills, Pioneer Girl’ series Book 4, by Jane Smith, published by Big Sky Publishing.

Carly’s fourth adventure, The Lady with the Lamp takes her overseas to meet the mother of modern nursing, the remarkable Florence Nightingale.

The Carly Mills series is a celebration of women’s achievements through history, an ‘explosion of excitement, action and Aussie history’. Readers, writers, teachers, children, parents – all welcome to join us at this special celebration.

www.carlymillspioneer girl.com

Jane Smith

Registration essential at:

www.moretonbayreaderswritersfestival.com/event/creative-editing-panel-and-book-launch/