Free teaching notes support English and HASS learning areas in the Australian Curriculum

This was Jane's second book week with us and more than met our expectations. We really enjoyed her presentation. Toowoomba East State School - October 2020.

We read the first few chapters, and the kids were obsessssssed! Sally, teacher.

ADVENTURES WITH TOMMY BELL (years 3 to 6). Through readings and role-play from the 'Tommy Bell, Bushranger Boy' series, children learn the stories from our bushranging days: the facts and the fiction.

An exciting, easy-to-read, action-packed fictional romp through Australian bushranging history. Sandy Fussell, Sunday Telegraph.

The plots are gripping, the characters interesting and the history woven into it is based on fact. Katy Gerner, Reading Time.

AUTHOR TALKS

Fun, Engaging & Educational

Talks can be tailored to your needs and can include exercises on writing characters or history games.

What a great little book - fast paced and fascinating! Lorraine, school library technician.

A NEW WORLD (years 3 to 8). Through role-play, props and readings from 'Carly Mills, Pioneer Girl', children experience the ordeals faced by 19th century emigrants to Australia, and learn how Caroline Chisholm saved them. They will discover how the brave actions of other strong women of our past helped make the world a better place.

BAIL UP! (years 5 to 7) Children will discover some amazing stories from Australia's bushranging past. Through games and stories from 'Tommy Bell' and 'Australian Bushrangers' series, they will learn how to untangle fact from fiction.
